The many gardeners and allotment holders should find this a pleasant way to support the village by entering the best of their produce. Even picking berries from the footpath hedgerows could win a salver.

Let's make this a bumper year for entries !

Note the schedule of classes printed in this month's News and have a go.

This show, with excellent teas in the back room of the village hall, plus the auction of cakes, jams and vegetables, is the result of hard work by the committee and volunteer help.

PLEASE SUPPORT THEIR WORK.....thank you.

New baby:

Kirsty and Greg Anthony, of High Street Feckenham, are delighted with the arrival of their first child Rory James Peter on 16th of June. Rory was born at the Alexandra hospital and weighed 9lbs 6oz. Now aged 8 weeks he is making excellent progress and tips the scales at 13lbs! Kirsty tells me is wearing clothes for 3-6 month olds and seems to take after his paternal grandfather who is well over 6 feet tall. Do we have a potential rugby player here I wonder?

New grandchild:

Congratulations to Mike and Lucy Case on the birth of their daughter Sophie Hanora. Sophie was born on June 18th and is a little sister for George and Billy and a grand daughter for Tave and Chris Bristow who live at The Byre, Coupass Cottages.

Baptism:

On 27th July, Ava May, the first child of Charlotte and Paul Styler, was christened at the Parish church of St John the Baptist in Feckenham. After the service celebrations continued at the family farm on Moors Lane. It was a lovely sunny day and the family would like to thank all who came to help make the day so special. They would particularly like to thank and congratulate Rev Gary Crellin who was recently ordained deacon; the baptism of Ava May was his first ever ceremony!

Welcome:

We extend a warm welcome to Toby and Louise Denne and their sons Oliver and Angus who moved into The Old Vicarage on 21st July. The family have moved here from Oxford as Toby works for a company in Bromsgrove. Louise tells me that they researched the area quite thoroughly before deciding to choose Feckenham, and this included reading Feckenham news on line!

Although they know they will miss Oxford, where they lived for many years, they look forward to getting to know the village and to take part in events when possible. Louise works with children who have learning disabilities and is also embarking on a PhD. Oliver is completing his degree and Angus is waiting for A level results hoping to get into the university of his choice. We wish them all many happy years in Feckenham.

11am - 4pm - Teas on Saturday Afternoon

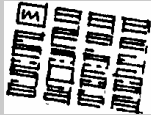

The annual Festival of Churches (www.festivalofchurches.co.uk) is taking place in the the Counties of Herefordshire, Shropshire and Worcestershire to celebrate the important role that churches play in the life and heart of our communities. Held on the weekends of the 13/14 and 20/21 September the Festival coincides with the national Heritage Open Days (www.heritageopendays.org.uk).

The Church of St John the Baptist is joining this festival on the weekend of 20/21 September when the church will be open with displays which will include:-

- Evidence of possible Celtic origins.
- The History of the building.
- John de Feckenham, the Last Abbott of Westminster.
- Recent archaeological finds in the churchyard.
- The Fallen of the First World War.
- The Life of the Church.
- Wildlife in the churchyard.

Please come along and see what we have on show - teas will be served on the Saturday afternoon,

Operation Christmas Child

Lin Preece

2014 APPEAL

THE POWER OF A SIMPLE GIFT

Thank you, for your involvement in Operation Christmas Child in 2013. Globally we sent almost 10 million shoeboxes to children living in some of the toughest parts of the world, showing them that we do care about them and they have not been forgotten.

This is Feckenhams 17th year and I am asking once again for your support.

It is so terribly sad that there are so many needy children in our world today, and even though 'Operation Christmas Child', reaches out to 10 million of these poor children, there are still millions more in need of our help. So please get a shoebox, wrap it in Christmas paper and fill with lots of goodies. The items need not be expensive just imaginative. Some things that are certain to thrill are balls, skipping ropes, stationary, musical instruments, little dolls, toy vehicles (I have just read about a child that was delighted with a pair of sunglasses) must not forget the cuddly toy, sweets and nice warm hat.

Make a difference to the life of a child in need by taking part in the world's largest Christmas shoebox appeal, Operation Christmas Child.

Leaflets with all the information you will need and knitting patterns are available in Church. If you would like to help in other ways, any small gifts that will fit inside a box will be gratefully received. As ever your knitted items are always desperately needed. There is a box in Church for your kind donations.

Please have your boxes ready and take them to Church by Monday 10th November.

Our stall at this years Wake raised £194 so we have made a really good start, this money goes towards transportation costs.

THANK YOU ONCE AGAIN FOR MAKING OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD POSSIBLE.

For more information please ring Lin Preece 893166 or visit website were you will find lots of information, resources and printable activities for children, it's really worth a visit !

Village Shop

Jeff Matthews

The news for the shop in September is the AGM, which is to take place on Thursday, 25th September at 7:30pm in the village hall. As was planned, a number of Directors are standing down this year, having done 5 years since the shop was opened – some even more having been involved with the early plans for establishing it, in the first place. Walter Richards, Michael Mott and Jeff Matthews are creating space for some new blood to join the Board. If you would like to get involved with overseeing the governance of the shop, then Chair John Eaton would like to hear from you. Feckenham Community Shop Association Ltd is set up as a Social Enterprise, which has a number of features that make it run like a classic business, but without the driving imperative of creating profit for shareholders. It needs to make money, but it also measures its success in other ways. The Board are there to oversee the governance of the shop – the shop committee actually looks after the day to day management. John can be reached on 894272 or call in at the shop to find out more.

Margaret Green, wife of our previous Vicar John Green, has been busy knitting some beautiful toys that are now for sale in the shop. Various creatures are featured, including ever popular Dinosaurs. All the proceeds from the sale go to the Mission Morogoro charity that is supporting our link with that part of Tanzania and the Maternity Unit there. You had better be quick though, I saw two sold when I was in the shop for 15 minutes!

And finally, on the new food lines front, Mister Dave's frozen curry meals have been added. Stuck for something for tea? Why not come and see what you can rustle up from our freezer cabinet. This latest in quality meals should add a little spice to your life, with a range of curry options.

Thought for the month

Wyn Beynon

Dear Friends,

Why are we so often uncomfortable with those who are different to us?

When I was in my late teens I discovered that I had a disabled cousin. They had been kept at home and never brought to family gatherings because, I was told, it was better. But better for whom? Not my cousin, for sure, but for everyone else not be made uncomfortable! It still makes me angry to think of this.

When I was a student I worked one holiday as a nursing assistant on a ward full of mentally disabled children. It was harrowing stuff as some of them were almost incapable of any kind of communication. But there were also some young men there with Downs Syndrome. They were beautiful, lovely people, friendly and smiling, intelligent and helpful. But they were left there, the staff told me, because their parents didn't want them at home although they looked after themselves, indeed could have been employed and earning money. But they didn't fit the cultural standard of "normal".

It's time, as I start my third year in post, to "up the ante" a bit and ask an indelicate question. Are you comfortable with difference?

The answer to that question might depend on your age. But it might not. I know folk who are in their 70s and 80s who are far more open minded and tolerant than those in their 20s!

The Church is moving through another crisis. The Church is always in some crisis, otherwise it wouldn't be the Church!! This crisis is of accepting or denying difference. How do you react to difference in gender, sexuality, disability, wealth, intelligence, dress sense, marital status or physical wholeness?

My favourite picture of the Church is Adullam's Cave, in the Old Testament, where David (before he is King David) is a Robin Hood-like rebel and outlaw who gathers together all the drop-outs, misfits, discontents and dodgy characters and gives them hope. How unlike the Church of England often more concerned with marketing itself as a brand and getting good media coverage, and too often alienating those who are "different". May our parishes tell a different story!

best wishes,

Wyn

Neighbourhood Development Plan

Alan Jones

PLANNING FOR FECKENHAM'S FUTURE

There's nothing that gets Feckenham folk more hot under the collar than planning. People get worried when planning notices appear and annoyed when their applications are turned down. The Government has recently given communities like ours the chance to formulate their own planning policies - to say where any new building should and should not be and to influence the type of building permitted. The way this is done is through a Neighbourhood Development Plan (NDP).

The Parish Council has decided that it is appropriate for Feckenham to have its own NDP and the wheels have been set in motion. A Working Party has been formed and application has been made to Redditch Borough Council for Neighbourhood Area Designation.

The next step will involve consulting YOU. Every registered voter, business, community organisation, etc will be asked for their opinion on the way they think the village should develop. This should happen during the Autumn. Armed with the information the consultation provides, the Working Party and the Parish Council will devise a Plan and this will be submitted for approval by the Borough and by an independent inspector - and then it comes back to YOU for final approval (or not) in a Parish Referendum.

The aim is to provide a Feckenham Plan which must be referred to before any planning decisions are made. It's worth pointing out at this stage that all the existing planning legislation, Redditch local plans, green belt rules and Conservation Area rules will still apply and the NDP cannot change these.

Neither the Parish Council or the Working Party will do anything to influence the outcome of the consultations - they will merely ensure that everyone has a chance to contribute and that the necessary steps are taken to complete the process. There'll be more information soon but in the meantime if you have any questions about the NDP you can contact the Chair of the Working Party, Alan Jones, on 893463 or Marion Chute (Secretary) on 892285.

ONE GIANT LEAP...

If your copy of Feckenham News arrives early, you still have a chance to catch Gravity on Saturday, 30th August at 7.30pm

CHECK IN TO THE GRAND HOTEL

The FeckenOdeon's 14th season get's off to a cracking start with a fast and furious comedy adventure set in a very grand hotel full of somewhat eccentric guests.... and the staff are a bit strange too. The curtain goes up on The Grand Budapest Hotel at 7.30pm on Saturday, 27th September.

The film relates the adventures of legendary concierge Gustave H. and Zero Moustafa, the lobby boy who becomes his most trusted friend. The story, set between the Wars, involves the theft and recovery of a priceless Renaissance painting and the battle for an enormous family fortune -- all against the back-drop of a suddenly and dramatically changing Continent. The plot is as complicated as the setting is grandiose - both being like a multi-tiered wedding cake iced with fantastic and comedic invention. Ralph Fiennes is hilarious as the wayward concierge and writer/director Wes Anderson has produced a film guaranteed to delight even the stoniest of hearts.

Tickets are on sale at The Village Shop and The Rose & Crown. You can book by phone (through TicketSource) on 0333 666 3366 or online at www.fecknodeon.co.uk

January 25th: Northumberland Theatre in "Rumplestiltskin"

May 10th: Buffalo Gals' "Stampede".

Tickets for all 4 shows are now on sale at The Village Shop and The Rose & Crown, by phone on 0833 666 3366

or online at www.ticketsource.co.uk/feckenham

Tickets cost £10 (Children £7 for Rumplestiltskin) - but you can save by buying a SEASON TICKET to see all of the shows for just £35.

SPRUCED AND TILED

On Saturday, 16th August a merry band of volunteers gathered to redecorate the Hall. It now looks bright and clean - ready to face another year. Many thanks to everyone who willingly wielded a paintbrush.

During a rare lull in the Hall's activities, Malcolm Hawkes and Alex Flanagan have been hard at work re-tiling the foyer. All should be complete by the time you read this.

ENTERTAINMENTS Committee

CROWS BEWARE.

It's official - they are coming back! October 18th & 19th are the dates for this year's SCARECROW WEEKEND.

If you're new to Feckenham (or have a short memory) you won't know that this is the weekend when villagers show off their creativity by making the most strange, peculiar and downright outrageous scarecrows - and put them on display throughout the village. There's a prize for the best scarecrow - but the organisers neatly sidestep all responsibility for the outcome of the competition by inviting the public to vote for the exhibit they most liked. Visitors and locals can follow The Scarecrow Trail on both days from 11.30am. The Trail starts on The Square where free maps can be had. There'll be teas, cakes and games for the kids also on The Square.

Unlike similar events in the area, this is entirely FREE! It's not in aid of anything - simply a bit of fun before the winter closes in on us.

GET STUFFING

This really is a case of - over to you folks! The event depends entirely upon your creativity. In past years we've had over 50 scarecrows and we'd love it if we could beat that this year. There's no theme - other than "Scarecrows" - and you can make your scary thing out of anything you like - but it must be visible from the street. If you live outside the central village (beyond the Feckenham signs) you can take part by putting your scarecrow on The Square. There's an entry form below. GOOD LUCK!

TROPHIES

There are lots of trophies to be won, some open to all, and some restricted to villagers and children attending the schools.

The Committee wishes to thank exhibitors, and all who in any way contribute to the success of the show.

FECKENHAM FLOWER SHOW - Saturday 13th September 2014

The Autumn Flower Show will be held in the Village Hall on Saturday 13th September 2014, and staging of exhibits will be between 10.00am and 12 noon. Judging will then take place behind closed doors, and after calculating the results the Show will open at 2.30pm, for visitors to admire the exhibits.

A full Schedule of Classes is included in this issue of Feckenham News, along with more details of the Show. Making entries to the Show is very easy, and there are plenty of helpers available to advise first-time exhibitors. The more exhibits there are, the more interesting the Show, and whilst not everyone can be a winner, all of the exhibitors enjoy taking part in this traditional village event.

Teas will be available during the afternoon, and there will be an auction of exhibits towards the end of the Show.

CELTIC CASCADE

This year's "Fun on The Square" event was going to be so simple. "Celtic Capers" - just some Celtic dancers, a band, some games for the kids and lots of food and drink for the adults. An ideal outdoor evening for mid-July... or so we thought! At 11am on the morning of 19th July the heavens opened and a deluge of Biblical proportions trapped the organisers under a solitary gazebo in the centre of The Square. As the downpour showed no sign of easing and further "showers" were predicted for the rest of the day, the decision was made to relocate the event to the Village Hall. The evening actually turned out to be clear and calm but the ground on The Square remained waterlogged - which would have been dangerous for the dancers and lethal when it came to electrical equipment.

RAPID RESPONSE TEAM

Feckenham's band of occasional volunteers materialised and the large sprawling event was shoehorned into the smaller indoor venue. Phil and Henry Talbot rapidly delivered hastily produced flyers to the entire village so that people knew that the event was still happening. Defying the organisers' worst fears, people came in droves, the Hall was full to bursting, vast amounts of Irish Stew and other culinary delights were served - and the bar sold out of beer. The McCarthy-Felton Irish Dancers and the Inkberrow Scottish Traditional Dancers gave impressive displays and The Rhythm Pirates and their caller soon had people on their feet. In the Back Room traditional games of Irish Rings and Heft a Haggis did a roaring trade. Raffle tickets went like hot pancakes and hot pancakes went like raffle tickets. The sum of £670 was raised for the upkeep of The Square - a smaller amount than at previous events, but under the circumstances it's a very good result. The Committee would like to thank all those (too numerous to mention individually) who helped turn a potential disaster into a highly enjoyable evening.

SEPTEMBER SNAPPED

It's time to find this year's Feckenham Photographer of the Year. Contestants are asked to rush out NOW and take a picture. The subject is "Feckenham in September" so we need pictures of things going on, people doing things or just the way our village looks at this time of year - let your imagination run riot! get snapping - there's loads happening and you only have to look around you to find it. Harvesting (see our cover picture), gardening, barbecuing - you just have to make a picture of what you see.

EASY TO ENTER

All you have to do is print your photograph on A4 size photo paper, pick up and fill in an entry form (from the Village Shop, The Rose & Crown or the Village Hall) and deliver your entry to The Village Shop. Entry is free and you can submit as many pictures as you like. Closing date is 12th September - pictures will be displayed and judged by a professional photographer at Feckenham Flower Show at the Village Hall on 13th September and the prize giving will happen during the Show.

SOLAR BONUS

Feckenham Village Hall is reaping the benefits of installing solar panels on its roof. The Hall's energy bills are much reduced and the building is doing its bit to reduce pollution. The panels were installed under a special scheme from Community First and operated by Caplor Energy. Caplor is now offering to make further donations to the Hall's funds when villagers install panels on their own homes. If you mention Feckenham Village Hall when you first contact Caplor £150 will be donated. Call 01432 860644 for full details.

Stock & Bradley Gardening Club

Rob Cole

The next Club meeting - Wednesday 3rd September 2014 is a talk by Helen Picton entitled 'It's Not Time for Bed Yet'. Helen helps to run the family nursery at Colwall, which specialises in Asters, and her talk is about late summer and autumn colour in the garden. Helen recently married Ross Barbour who was the Head Gardener at Ragley Hall and who came to talk to us last year.

The theme for the monthly competition is 'Yellow'. To take part, just bring along an exhibit for judging by the speaker. Every entry will win a point, and 1st, 2nd, and 3rd will be awarded additional points. The member with the most number of points in the year will be awarded a prize of a year's subscription to the Gardening Club, at the forthcoming AGM.

Club meetings are held on the first Wednesday of each month at the Village Hall, Church Road, Bradley Green starting at 7.30pm, and are free to members for an annual subscription of £10.00. Visitors are made very welcome and may attend for

Superfast Broadband

Q Cary

Petition

Back in May's edition I promised I would do a petition to try and persuade Worcestershire County Council to include us in their plans for roll-out of fibre-optic Superfast Broadband. I'm very pleased to say my fiancé's been round every single house in the village over the past couple of months and gathered 216 signatures, which is 2/3 the entire population of the village, so thank you to everyone who took the time to sign up. Also, many thanks to the 20+ people who signed the online petition.

We've now sent the completed petition to Clare Marchant, the CEO of WCC; to Philip Gretton, our local county councillor; to the Parish Council; to Karen Lumley, our local MP; to Ed Vaizey, Minister for Culture, Media and Sport; and to Bromsgrove MP and Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport, Sajid Javid. We've had a letter of support back from Karen Lumley and Councillor Gretton will also formally present our petition to the County Council shortly, in order to lend his and the Parish council's support to it.

I can't promise that all of this will definitely get us included in the plans, and if it does, how long it will take to get us connected, but I would rather we try and fail than not try at all. I'll be in touch when I hear back from the County Council.
